

Electoral Registration- Response Required

Act now so Buckinghamshire Council can check who is eligible to be registered to vote at your address.

Dear <<Full name>>

You must take action so we can check who is eligible to register to vote at your address. Complete the steps below by 14 July 2023.

It takes just a few minutes online. You cannot reply directly to this email.

1

Visit the website

<https://householdresponse.com/Buckinghamshire>

2

Enter your unique security code

Part 1: <<unique security code>>

Part 2: <<unique security code>>

3

Update your household information and submit

Include the names and nationalities of everyone who lives at this address

For security you will need to confirm your postcode in addition to the security codes shown above before you can submit your household response on the above website.

If you add any new people they will also need to complete a registration application. They can do this at gov.uk/register-to-vote. We will send each person a form if they do not apply online.

We have contacted you via email as you provided us with your email address previously. You have the right to object to the use of your email address for the purposes of electoral registration.

If you no longer want to be contacted by email you should contact the Electoral Registration Officer to unsubscribe at elections@buckinghamshire.gov.uk

Please note, when voting in person in the polling station you are now required to present valid photographic ID. For more information visit www.electoralcommission.org.uk/voterID

If you have a query, or need further information, please contact us using the details below.

Yours faithfully
